Rules and Grounds for Disqualification of the SLHVC's Hot Sauce Challenge

Are you sure you want to do this?...there's no shame in backing out!

- You must eat all 10 hot sauces. All spoonful must be clean of sauce.
- There is a 5 minute burn period after completion. After the 5 minutes you must be back in your seat ready to take on the next sauce.
- During the 5 minutes, in-between sauces, you will be asked a trivia question. The person who finishes all 10 sauces and answers the most correct trivia questions is the winner.
- You will be given crackers to eat, but only starting after sauce #5.
- You must not be under the influence of any substance.
- You must complete and sign the disclaimer prior to the challenge.
- You cannot start the challenge prior to the starting signal.
- We suggest that you keep your hands away from your face and advise that you do not run your eyes.
- You cannot leave your table for any reason, including going to the bathroom. Leaving your table will cause you to be disqualified. So go before the challenge starts.
- The challenge must be witnessed and timed by an authorized judge.
- You agree that any photos taken during the challenge can be used on the Sanford Lab Homestake Visitor Center's/Lead Area Chamber of Commerce's social media pages (win or lose).If you tap out, you are instantly disqualified and receive nothing.
- Vomiting will result in instant disqualification... and total shame

.Remember you agreed to do the challenge. Don't blame anyone else. Have you made a will?
Good Luck. You are going to need it.
